

Impact Brief | Collective Knowledge that works for Youth

- 2020 The Global Initiative on Decent Jobs for Youth (DJY) and Generation Unlimited (GenU) established a strategic partnership to scale up DJY's knowledge platform as a one-stop shop for resources on youth related interventions.
- Early 2021 Partners of DJY and GenU launched the brand-new YouthForesight Knowledge Platform in April 2021.
- Late 2021 The YouthForesight Online Community Forum pilots are launched.

Jayathma Wickramanayake
UN Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth

"YouthForesight will play a key role in ensuring all stakeholders are promoting joint, coordinated, and evidence-based policies and actions to ensure young people are empowered to reach their full potential."

About YouthForesight

YouthForesight is jointly hosted by the Global Initiative on Decent Jobs for Youth (DJY) and Generation Unlimited (GenU).

It is a one-stop shop providing curated tools, publications, databases and resources to support evidence-based action for supporting young people's education and skilling, employment, entrepreneurship, and engagement. GenU and DJY will continually expand the platform with high-quality content.

See more on how you can collaborate with YouthForesight!

Watch the video